SECURING VENUES AGAINST TERRORISM AND NATURAL DISASTERS

Public, private and local agencies need emergency planning and training to enhance and integrate their efforts to prevent terrorist incidents and response to natural disasters. CA-LSI provides customized programs to support security planning for mass gatherings and special events. Staff offers expertise to support agencies with planning and training which will strengthen preparedness and response capabilities by implementing programs to enhance the public and private sector and reducing critical infrastructure/key resource and soft target vulnerabilities.
